

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law allowing a business that I currently have a business relationship with to call as often as they want.